

Sara Levi Sacerdotti (1971), Master Degree in Political Science. She took a Master of Science in Public Policy Analysis. She is project manager at SiTI, where coordinates projects in the field of innovation and local development, with a focus on socio-economic analyses and economic impact of local projects. She has the PM4ESD® foundation level certification on Project Management for European Sustainable Development.